Team Building Activity: Share Current Activities

- 1) Find a partner and take turns discussing what activities you are currently involved in, either in school or outside of school.
- 2) If you are not involved in activities or sports, tell them which ones you'd like to be involved in this school year.
- 3) Introduce your partner to the whole class, telling them what activity or sport they are involved in.

Class Pop Quiz: T or F

- Being involved in an extracurricular school sponsored activity is linked to positive school engagement which includes: good attendance, high academic achievement, and continuing education after high school.
- Students who are involved in outside activities have a higher acceptance rate in college when compared to students who are not involved in outside activities.
- Students gain imperative skills for postsecondary success including: leadership, as well as commitment & specialization by being involved in a school activity
- Students who are involved in extracurriculars have less risk factors of dropping out of high school and abusing substances.

What about eligibility?

In order to be eligible, participants may not be failing any classes at the weekly or semester grade checks regardless of the number of classes they are enrolled in. Participants failing any classes in the semester prior to participation will be ineligible for the first six weeks of the following semester. They may regain eligibility if they are not failing any classes at that time. Failing to regain eligibility by the Regain Date, the student will remain ineligible for the remainder of the season. A participant failing any class at the weekly grade checks will be ineligible for the following academic week. In addition, any student who has a “D” in any class at the weekly grade check will not be eligible to miss any school time for athletics or activities for the following academic week. A failing grade at the grade check remains a failing grade in relation to eligibility until the next scheduled grade check. “D” grades may be raised prior to missing school time if communicated directly by the grading teacher to that Activities Office and also reflected in Infinite Campus.
